

Maya is the founder of Suburban Women for Kamala Harris, a Facebook page that started the day after Harris was announced as VP, and now has 185,000 members (and counting!). Maya's proudest role is that of housewife, but she's worked as a property and restaurant manager, realtor and corrections officer.